ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Roseann Crisman (Crisman) (Filing No. 52). Crisman seeks additional time in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Upon consideration and for good cause shown, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Crisman's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 52) is granted. Crisman is given until on or before November 30, 2009, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between November 17, 2009 and November 30, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 17th day of November, 2009.

United States Magistrate Judge
